Tuition Protection Scheme - Refer to www.tps.gov.au for detailed information.

Under the Tuition Protection Service (TPS) framework, all providers have a statutory obligation to report to the TPS Director and The ESOS Agency about provider and student defaults. This is the first layer of tuition protection for students. One of the main objectives of the TPS is to ensure that the placement and refund processes for students are quick and streamlined. The default notification requirements are to ensure students are looked after following a default in a timely way.

Provider default –

Under section 46A of the ESOS Act a registered provider defaults, in relation to an overseas student or intending overseas student and a course at a location, if:

- the provider fails to start providing the course to the student at the location on the agreed starting day; or

- after the course starts but before it is completed, it ceases to be provided to the student at the location; and the student has not withdrawn from the course before the default day.

Note: Section 46A sets out further rules prescribing when a provider defaults.

Under section 46B of the ESOS Act, Windsor will notify The ESOS Agency and the TPS Director of the default within 3 business days of the default occurring. Under section 46B Windsor will also notify students in relation to whom the default is happened. Under section 46D of the ESOS Act, Windsor will satisfy its tuition protection obligations to students within 14 days after the day of the default (the provider obligation period) to satisfy your tuition protection obligations to the student as set out in the section. This may include placing students who are referred to the TPS in a suitable alternative course. Student default - Under section 47A of the ESOS Act, an overseas student or intending overseas student defaults, in relation to a course at a location, if:

- the course starts at the location on the agreed starting day, but the student does not start the course on that day (and has not previously withdrawn); or
- the student withdraws from the course at the location (either before or after the agreed starting day); or
- the registered provider of the course refuses to provide, or continue providing, the course to the student at the location because of one or more of the following:
  - the student failed to pay an amount payable to the provider for the course;
  - the student breached a condition of his/her student visa;
  - misbehaviour by the student (Note: the student is entitled to natural justice under subsection 47A(3)).

Note: Subsection 47A(2) - A student does not default for failing to start a course on the agreed starting day if he/she does not start that course because the provider defaults in relation to the course at the location under subparagraph 46A(1)(a)(i).

Provider Obligation Period - If a student or intending student defaults Windsor will provide a refund in accordance with the requirements under either section 47D or 47E of the ESOS Act, depending on which section applies to the circumstances of the default situation.

Note:

- A student can pay full fees if the student wishes to, but the student is not required to pay more than 50% of the total tuition fees up front for the course before the student commences the course that is more than 25 weeks.
- Once a student has completed enrolment, fees will not be subject to change for the normal duration of the course. If a course length is extended by the student, then any fee increases will be required to be paid for the extended component of the course.
