Student Support Policy and Procedures

1 Purpose:

Windsor is committed to providing continuous support to all its students so that they can adjust to study and life in Australia, to achieve their learning goals and to achieve satisfactory academic progress towards meeting the learning outcomes of the course. For this purpose, Windsor determines the support needs of individual learners and provides access to the educational and support services necessary for the individual learner to meet the requirements of the training product as specified in training packages or VET accredited courses.

This policy ensures that all students have access to support services for individual academic or non-academic issues during the entire period of enrolment at Windsor.

2 Scope

This policy applies to:

- Students enrolled at Windsor
- Windsor Marketing, Admissions, Academic, Student Services and Administrative staff.

All staff are made aware of the requirements of this policy through staff induction, regular meetings, staff updates and continuous improvement practices. Students are made aware of this policy through Student Prospectus, the College's website, Student Handbook, during the enrolment and orientation processes.

3 Procedure

1.1 Nominated Student Contact Officers

Whilst all staff employed at Windsor has the shared responsibility of providing support to all students, Windsor has nominated 'Student Support Officers / Student Contact Officers' who are primarily the first point of contact. These officers are responsible for establishing the needs of students, arranging relevant services in order to assist with student issues and are available on campus at all times during Windsor's standard operation hours.

Clement I Eruva Savari	03 9663 0272	ceruva@windsorcollege.edu.au
James Hislop	03 9663 0272	jhislop@windsorcollege.edu.au

This information is also made available to students at the time of orientation and in the Student Handbook.

1.2 Student Support Services

The following support services are available and accessible for all students studying at Windsor for free at all times. When a student contacts any member of student support team, an initial consultation is made to explore the issue. Then based on the nature of issue, the student support team organises referral to relevant professional services.

Note: All referrals organised by Windsor are at no cost to the student. However, student may be charged a service fee by the external service provider. This amount is payable by student directly to the service provider.

- Principles of access and equity

Windsor is committed to providing and promoting non-discriminatory, inclusive practices and processes to provide equal opportunities for all students to achieve their learning outcomes and strives to ensure that its decision-making processes reflect a commitment to access and equity and treats all students or prospective students fairly.

Access and Equity means ensuring that people with differing needs and abilities have the same opportunities to successfully gain skills, knowledge and experience through education and training irrespective of their age, disability, colour, race, gender, religion, sexuality, family responsibilities, or location.

Windsor uses the same recruitment and enrolment processes for all applicants have been designed to be free from discrimination. Students who advise of their disability and/or learning difficulty after the enrolment will be issued a revised Offer of Enrolment and Enrolment Acceptance Agreement to accommodate any areas of reasonable adjustment that have been agreed to for the student.

If a Student with disability and/or learning difficulty cannot cope even after agreed reasonable adjustment, an alternative course will be offered. Windsor training and assessment resources are designed to be flexible and to be able to make reasonable adjustments if required. Windsor will ensure that language, literacy and numeracy requirements are consistent with the vocational level of the qualification being considered or offered.

Windsor provides support services for students with a recognised disability and/or learning difficulty including:

- learning support;
- alternative assessment methods;
- extra time to complete a course or assessment;
- learning support for basic literacy or numeracy difficulties

People from all social and cultural backgrounds will be equally treated and due respect will be given to people from Culturally and Linguistically Diverse background, people with disability and mature age students.

The Director of Studies is responsible for ensuring campus buildings, rooms, toilets and resources comply with relevant building requirements including access for people with disabilities. All staff are required to assist anyone needing help to access training materials, files, equipment, or other items that may be inaccessible to students.

Individuals who consider they have been treated unfairly are encouraged to use Windsor's Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure. Windsor supports the rights of students with a disability to training and assessment and will protect them wherever possible from discrimination, harassment or victimisation on the basis of their disability.

- Reasonable adjustment

Reasonable adjustment will be provided for student with special learning needs (such as a disability or learning difficulty) according to the nature of the learning need. Students may negotiate to customise assessment tasks to meet their individual needs in relation to interests, learning style, literacy, disability or cultural background.

Reasonable adjustments are made to ensure that the participant is not presented with artificial barriers to demonstrating achievement in the program of study. Reasonable adjustments may include the use of adaptive technology, educational support, and alternative methods of assessment such as oral assessment.

A student seeking a reasonable adjustment in an assessment must discuss their requirements with the trainer/assessor prior to the start of the component of study or at the earliest possible time once the class has commenced. Students may be requested to provide documentation to support their request for reasonable adjustment.

If reasonable adjustment to an assessment task is made, a record of the reasonable adjustment will be documented and a copy kept in the student file. The original integrity of the assessment must be maintained.

- Academic issues

Where a student needs assistance with academic issues or where a student is identified to be at risk of not complete the course within the expected duration, the student support officer (s) will organise a meeting with the student in presence of Director of Studies.

During this meeting an academic plan will be worked out to provide extra support to the student so that he/she can complete the course within the expected duration of the course.

If as a result of the meeting, there are any variations indicated in student enrolment or study load, appropriate notes will be recorded in student files and PRISMS will be updated if applicable.

All students regardless of their academic progress are able to gain advice and support at any time from the student support team in order to maintain satisfactory academic levels at all times

- Personal / Social issues

There are many issues that may affect students' social or personal lives.

Students have access to the student Support officers through normal College hours to gain advice and guidance on personal issues, accommodation issues, or family / friend issues. Where the Student Support Officer feels further support should be gained, a referral to an appropriate support service will be organised at no cost to the student.
